

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

R. Todd Ruppert Accepts Board Advisory Role with Space Phoenix Systems

Baltimore, MD — May 28, 2026 — Space Phoenix Systems, a leader in space logistics and return infrastructure, is pleased to announce that R. Todd Ruppert has joined the company as a board advisor.

Mr. Ruppert is the Founder and CEO of Ruppert International and is an internationally recognized leader and philanthropist. Ruppert possesses over forty years in the financial services sector and is active in many diversified fields that include not only finance, but also strategic consulting, arts & entertainment and disruptive technologies. He currently serves in advisory and board roles for numerous organizations worldwide, including Maryland Ignites, Shetland Space Centre, Storelli Sports, and the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame.

Andrew Parlock, Co-founder & CEO of Space Phoenix Systems, said, “We are honored to welcome Todd as a board advisor. His global perspective and depth of experience will be invaluable as we continue to build momentum and scale within the space logistics market.

Following the public announcement at the company’s launch event on May 19th, Ruppert shared his enthusiasm, stating, “I’m excited to join the advisory board of Space Phoenix Systems It’s especially exciting to see this level of innovation emerging from Baltimore. What the team is building is truly remarkable, and I believe they are positioned for tremendous success. I look forward to contributing in a meaningful way.”

About Space Phoenix Systems Inc.

Space Phoenix Systems (SPS) is a space logistics company dedicated to providing easy, affordable, and timely access to space for the emerging in-space manufacturing industry. Headquartered in Baltimore, Maryland, with product development facilities at the University of New Hampshire’s John Olson Advanced Manufacturing Center, SPS is enabling The Art of the Achievable — empowering customers to realize the vast, proven potential of manufacturing in space.

For further information, please contact:
connect@space-phoenix.com